PROCEEDING (IN CHAMBERS): ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THESE CASES SHOULD NOT BE COMBINED AND SETTING STATUS CONFERENCE

Before the Court are two cases filed against the same Defendants, MGA Entertainment Inc. And Isaac Larian ("Defendants"): (1) National Fire Insurance Company et al. v. MGA Entertainment Inc. et al., SA CV 12-0943-DOC(RNBx)("12-0943"); and (2) Evanston Insurance Company v. MGA Entertainment Inc. et al., SA CV 12-5654-DOC(RNBx)("12-5654").

The Court is intimately familiar with the factual predicate of these cases, which appear to share the: (1) same causes of action for reimbursement and unjust enrichment against Defendants as insureds of Plaintiffs; and (2) some factual allegations against Defendants regarding their activities in the underlying litigation. The Court previously resolved, in a single case, several disputes between Plaintiffs and Defendants regarding the underlying action. See MGA Entertainment Inc. et al. v Hartford . , SA CV 08-0457-DOC(RNBx).

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Plaintiffs to SHOW CAUSE why these cases should not be combined. Plaintiff shall file a response to this Order of no more than 4 pages on or before August 22, 2012. Failure to file a response to this Order shall be deemed consent to consolidating these cases.

If any of the Defendants in these three actions wishes to file a response to this Order or a reply to Plaintiff's response, they must do so in a brief of no more than 4 pages on or before August
